

Signature Bank Earns Spot No. 15 on Crain's List of Largest Banks in Chicago

Commercial bank's record growth and profitability land company on prestigious list with highest ranked return on equity

(ROSEMONT, IL [July 31, 2024] – Signature Bank Chicago, a leading independently owned business bank, today announced it has been named to Crain's Chicago Business' list of Largest Banks in Chicago. The bank ranks as the 15th largest bank in Chicago and has the highest "Return on average equity" and second highest "Return on average assets" and "Commercial loans" percentages. This achievement marks the bank's seventh consecutive year of record growth and profitability.

"It is an honor to once again have our growth, stability, and focus on delivering personalized business banking recognized by Crain's on the list of Largest Banks in Chicago," said Mick O'Rourke, President and CEO of Signature Bank Chicago. "The fact that we continue to land on this list is a testament to the partnerships we've formed with our customers, our dedication to Chicago and surrounding areas, and the hard work and dedication of our world-class team."

Signature Bank continues to distinguish itself through its customer-centric approach, offering a concierge business banking experience combined with a comprehensive suite of banking solutions including commercial banking, lending solutions, government-sponsored programs, and wealth management. The bank also continues to expand into new markets and has been increasing its footprint in Wisconsin while also exploring new vertical markets and dedicating focused banking solutions in aviation, law firms, manufacturing, fund banking, and more.
